LETTERS FROM TWO STATES

MOHEGAN

Personal Items of Local Interest.

Merritt called on friends in thi mrs. Bruckird of Palmertown called on local friends the first of the week. George Cooke of Brissol is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Fowler.

There were no services at the church Sunday owing to the snow storm.

Thomas Dolbeare of Quaker Hill spent Friday with his daughter, Mrs.

Ambrose Sullivan.

Mrs. Avery and Mrs. Dolbeare were in Uncasylle the first of the week.

Anson Dolbeare has returned to Boston after spending several days with his mother, Mrs. A. Dolbeare.

Julian Harris of Norwich called on friends in this place Sunday.

Wedding Anniversary Celebrated.

On Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Fowler celebrated the seventh anniversary of their marriage at their home in Mohegan. Their guests numbered about eighty, including many fom Norwich and New London. Music for dancing in the basement was furnished by J. D. Quidgeon, Burrill Fleiding and Frank Burrows, of New London, Thomas Wilbur prompting. Sandwiches, cocoa, cake, ice cream and yokeas, this last the celebrated Indian dish of pulverized dried aweet corn, were served by Mrs. Fowler, assisted by Mrs. Nettie Fowler and Miss Cynthia Fowler.

The guests brought many handsome of the company. Wedding Anniversary Celebrated.

by the company.

Mrs. Fowler was Miss Lizzle

Nordthdorft of Mohesan. Mr. and Mrs.

Fowler have three children, a son

WINDHAM COUNTY.

EASTFORD

Belated Snowstorm-Funeral of Lucier P. Carpenter.

Charles S. Deans purchased from A.

M. Bowen on April 10th the store building recently owned and occupied by J. J. Young.

Judge and Mrs. J. M. Tatem of Wilhmantic spent Sunday here. The former visited in Putnem on Monday.

Mrs. Albert Hammond of Woodstock Valley commenced the spring term of school on Monday, the 3d. She has charge of the primary department here.

here.
Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Keith visited in Putnam last week, staying over night there.

There was a snewstorm here on Sunday, April Sth. The snow was from four to six inches dep. It nearly all disappeared by Monday.

Mrs. Maro E. Lewis visited relatives in Charlton Mass. recently. She was accompanied by her son, M. Darwin, who returned from there to Monson Academy, where he is attending school. He enjoyed a vacation of two weeks here.

here.

Rev. J. P. King of the Congregational church delivered a memorial sermon to Lucien P. Carpenter at the North Ashford Baptist church on the 6th. Both were veterans of the war. The bearers were veterans also, Burial was in the North Ashford ceme-

Miss Molife Trowbridge, accompanied by a friend from Brooklyn, N. Y., is spending a week at the Old Castle. Her brother Grant, of New Jersey, is here for the same length of time.

Miss Elizabeth Hayward of Putnam is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert fold weather prevails here yet.

Social and Supper. The Ladies' Aid society of the Methsupper in the Me Plairsday evening.

NORTH STERLING Pupils Having Vacation for Ten Days

-Heavy Teams Cut Up Roads. George L. Strong thinks of return

isherman.

Mrs. John Potter has been entertaining guests from Shrewsbury, Mass.

Lee Loomis of Providence called on
F. O. Plummer recently.

Miss Nettie Jencks visited in Providence last week.

The school is having a vacation of ten days.

Sunday morning, with a northeast
snow storm, looked more like Christmas than April. es than April.

F. O. Plummer has just purchased a hable registered Holstein bull calf.

The heavy teaming from the steam saw mills is leaving the roads in bad condition.

Miss May Baker and her twin brothers Richard and Ramond of Con-

Henry J. Bill is gradually failing.

Mrs. George F. Pierce, Jr., remains sobut the same in health.

WOODSTOCK

Owners Locking After Property-Fast Day Service.

Mrs. William Mathewson returned to town on Tuesday.

Miss Eunice M. Williamson of Hart-William M. Gallup.
The Sunday morning service at the Congregational church was omitted on account of the snowstorm. Mrs. Clarence H. Child led the Endeavor meeting in the evening.

A Fast day service was held in the chapel Friday evening.

F. W. Hinrichs was in town over Sunday. He is planning an addition Judge Albert Mathewson of New Haven spent Tuesday here.

Mrs. B. R. Ritch was in Worcester.

Monday.

Miss Susan D. Gordon was here a part of last week to look after her real

EAST WOODSTOCK

Children to Give Easter Concert.

Mrs. T. A. Turner, Misses Bernice ad Lyle Turner spent Monday h An Easter concert will be given by the children Sunday at 10.45 a. m., in charge of Misses Upham and Alton. Mrs. L. H. Lindeman is entertain; ing her cousin, Mrs. Alice Hayward of Putnam.
Gladys Foster is visiting G. G.
Thresher at North Scituate, R. I.
Miss Maria Chandler of New York is at her home for the Easter recess.

Missionary Meeting. The missionary meeting was held Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. A. G. Morse. Topic, The New Wowan in the Orient, Lender, Mrs. C. C. Gilder-spending several weeks with her sis-ter, Mrs. A. G. Witherell.

CLARK'S CORNERS

Visitors Come and Go-Delay in Open ing School.

Miss A. Faye Darrow of New Lon-den spent Menday at E. E. Chapel's. Mrs. Frank Melvin has returned free visiting her aunt at Bridgeport. Mrs. Frank E. Clask is visiting her

NEW LONDON COUNTY | daughter, Mrs. J. J. Baker, at Orient, Mrs. L. H. Jewett visited friends it Villimantic Wednesday. George Giazier was in Abington on Wednesday.

Dr. W. Blaine Oliver of Manchester was in town Monday.

Mrs. Andrew Darling visited relatives in Willimantic this week.

Owing to illness of the teacher, school did not open here on Monday.

Mr. Coltery and family have moved to the Carver place.

CENTRAL VILLAGE The King's Daughters Hold Easter Sale -Visitors and Travelers

Mrs. Mortimer Stetson has been en Mrs. Mortimer Stetson has been en-tertaining her niece, Miss Marjorie Baker, of Putnam.

Mrs. Emma Ecclestone, a resident of Texas Heights, is a patient in a hospi-tal in Providence.

Miss Ruth Howe of Pomfret Center Spent Synday with Miss Mary Byles. Miss Ruth Howe of Pomfret Center spent Sunday with Miss Mary Byles.
Rev. and Mrs. George Benedict have been entertaining their daughter, Miss Mirfam, of North Abington, Mass.
Mrs. Frederick Fagan has been the guest of Woonsocket friends.
Harold Stone and Miss Ruth Kendali of Brooklyn were guests of Miss Alice Kendali Saturday.
Miss Josephine Armstrong has returned from Providence, where she has spent the vacation at her home.
Master Elmer Vassar has been at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Amasa Mathewson, in Moosup.
Fay Mathewson of Clayville, R. I., has been visiting his uncle, Alva Vassar.

elected deacon in place of John R. Gallup, deceased.

Letters of dismissal and recommendation to the church in Coventry were voted to the pastor's family, his wife, daughters and son.

Upon adjournment of the church, the annual meeting of the society was immediately called to order by the clerk, Alfred Gallup. Rev. Mr. Kellogg was appointed moderator. Alfred Gallup read his report as clerk for the past year, which was accepted and he was re-elected for the ensuing year. sar.

Miss Beatrice Seguin has been in Danielson visiting her cousin, Miss Vivian Levalley.

Miss Emma Frazier has returned to Moosup after spending a few days here on account of the illness of her aunt, Miss Elizabeth Burke.

Miss Mary J. Lee is visiting Putnam year. Alfred Gallup read his report

Alfred Gallup read his report as treasurer, showing all bills paid up to April first and a balance of interest on funds available. His accounts were audited. The report of the auditors was read and accepted; then the treasurer's report was accepted.

The legal documents and correspondence concerning the new Dow fund of $5,000, which has recently come to the society, were read, explained and discussed. The disposition of the fund was reported, Alfred Gallup was receiected treasurer. Miss Mary J. Lee is visiting Putnam friends.
Miss Grace Rathbun of Willimantic has been the guest of her aunt, Mrs. S. Albert Clarke.
Miss Helen Mathewson entertained Miss Ruth Marior of Brooklyn, Mrs. John Phillips, Miss Harriett Loring, Misses Helen and Beatrice Atwood of Wauregan Thursday afternoon.
Miss Inez Erower has returned to Putnam, where she attends school.
Miss Rose E. Seguin has been the guest of Danielson relatives. elected treasurer.
Miss Melinda Gallup and Mrs. Ezra

Miss Rose E. Segim has been the guest of Danielson relatives.

Robert McFarland is improving at the Day Kimball@hospital, Putnam.

Mrs. Warren Hopkins and little son Alfred have been visiting relatives in Cranston, R. l.

Mrs. Walter Wright, who has been expending a few days at her parents. Miss Melinda Gallup and Mrs. Ezra Gallup were elected auditors. The following were elected business committee: Ezra A. Gallup, Herbert Tarbox, Silas D. Barber. It was voted to hold the annual meeting hereafter on the second Wednesday of April, after which the meeting was adjourned. pending a few days at her parents' some, has returned to her home in

Mrs. Fitch A. Carey is spending this sek in Brooklyn, N. V., with rela-

Easter Sale. The King's Daughters held an Easter sale at the church Thursday evening. An entertainment was given at eight o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. William Medbury of Canterbury were visitors Monday.

Ernest Schoffeld of Pittsfield has been a visitor here this week.

Mrs. George Loring was in Norwich
Saturday to attend the Greenman-Lathrop wedding.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Barber wer

in Norwich Wednesday.

Miss Harriett Kendall of Eastford is visiting her sister, Miss Alice Ken-Mrs. Jack Capwell has been enter-ining Mrs. William Hayward of Moosup.

Mrs. Narcisse Caplette has been enertaining relatives from Southbridge

CANTERBURY.

Sudden Death of Miss Alice Wilcox-Granges Hospitably Entertained at

F. L. Bennett received word recently of the death of a cousin, Miss Alice Wilcox, a beautiful girl of 18, daughter of Henry and Kate Wilcox of Natick, R. I. Miss Wilcox died very sud ick, R. I. Miss Wilcox died very sud-denly of convulsions. She was taken ill Saturday noon and died Sunday noon. Mr. Bennett and family did not receive the word in time to attend the Stafford Springs have been visiting Mrs. Jerome's father, Avery A. Stanwill be over with today.

Mrs. H. M. Barrows has some fine little chicks.

Hospitality of Plainfield Grange. A large delegation from here went to Plainfield Tuesday to attend the grange lecture. It proved an interesting meeting and the dinner was extremely fine.

William N. Medbury and son Frank, who have been caring for their friend, Lewis Shaw of Central Village, have returned home. Some thrifty and industrious local people have started farming as soon as the song of the peep frogs was heard.

Mrs. E. E. Rhodes entertained Rev.
Mr. Garst last Sunday.
The Baplist young people are rehearsing special Easter music.
The Misses Andem called on Miss
Elizabeth Eddy one day last week.
The summer residence of C. E. Olney of Hartford is being opened.
Schools were closed on Fast day.
Union Fast day services were held in the Congregational church Friday morning. Fred Cone and William Willoughby attended Poli's Saturday night. Misses Elizabeth and Ruth Cone Misses Edizaceth and Ruth Cone have gone to Boston to visit their sister, Miss Annie Cone.

The Canterbury baseball club will be under a new manager this season, Raymond V. Gascon. Among the first cabin passengers of the S. S. Carona, bound for Liverpool, England, was Mrs. Annie Dawson of Brooklyn, N. Y. Her son, Sergt, James Dawson and his family, with many other friends of Mrs. Dawson, were at other friends of Mrs. Dawson, were at the pler to bid her bon voyage. Mrs. Dawson was presented a lovely bou-quet of carnations and roses and a lovely horseshoe of flowers. Mrs. Dawson will visit Florence and Pom-pell. Naples. Rome. Venice. Milan, Turin, Genoa, Lucerne Switzerland, Paris and return to London in time for the coronation. Mrs. Dawson is known in Breoklyn as a liberal en-for the coronation. Mrs. Dawson is known in Breoklyn as a liberal en-tertainer and a charming hostess. She will return to her Coventry summer home about the middle of July Personal Items of Local Interest-Re cent Visitors.

DAYVILLE

The Ladies' Aid society met with Mrs. Frank W. Bennett Wednesday afternoon.
Mr. and Mrs. D. Lewis Downer entertained Brooklyn friends on Wed nesday evening. Robert K. Bennett of Windsor Locks spending his Easter vacation with mother, Mrs. Fannie Bennett.

Mrs. Gustave Bergston and daughter ouise Baker, are spending a few days in town.

Miss Viela Downer is spending the day in Worcester.
Miss Alice P. Fish is visiting Mrs. C. W. Atwood.

Miss Myrtice Blanchard spent the week end in Providence.

Fred E. Miller and Harold Field called on friends in Jewett City Sunday.

Mrs. Thomas Walsh had with her or Sunday John Costello and daughter Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Rollison are spending Sunday in New York.

Mrs. James Hall of Wrentham

Masz., spent the week end with Mr and Mrs. Alveh Hall.

Mrs. W. E. LaBelle is out after a severe illness of two weeks.

Miss Mary Blanchard is visiting it Westerly.

Mr. and Mrs. David Chase have re-turned from New York.

approved the selection of David Read as vice president, and R. Reers as assistant eashier, of the (National bank of Bridgeport oved into the house owned by Wi cupied.

The choir held rehearsal at Ballou ville last week.

PLAINFIELD

Congregational Society Accepts Resignation of Rev. H. M. Kellogg—Dov Fund of $5,000 Received by Church —C. E. Entertainment and Box So

Deacon J. Cyrus Tanner was reelected deacon. Herbert Tarbox was elected deacon in place of John R.

Officiated at Third Funeral.

telephone to Coventry Tuesday to of-ficiate at the funeral of Charles Loo-mis, who died suddenly from pneu-monia. This is the third funeral al-ready which he has had in his new Box Social. Wednesday evening the Christian Endeavor society held an entertain-ment and box social in Grange hall. Two dialogues, which were humorous and pointed, were well received. Over a score of mystery boxes were auc-tioned off amidst much merriment and spirited bidding. Refreshments were served. There was a large crowd pres-

Heavy Snew Fall.

inches of snow fell.

Earl Gallup has closed his engagement as boss farmer in Brooklyn and come home to his father's, George H.

failup, and will work the Franklin farm the coming season.

Mrs. Nettie Jerome and children of

THOMPSON

Getting 'Hotel Ready for Season

Many Attend Play.

Miss Lucy Ingraham and a friend from Providence visited Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Ingraham on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hutchins of Hav-ernill, Mass. came last week, and are at the Vernon Stiles hotel, preparing for the coming season.

at the Vernon Stiles hotel, preparing for the coming season. Mrs. E. E. Rhodes entertained Rev.

morning.

The play, Valley Farm, given by the Wilsonville people in the town hall on Saturday night, was exceptionally well staged and presented and was enjoyed by a good audience.

The Misses Cranska were in town

Repairs are being made on the exterior of J. S. Lewis' house. In spite of the unusual weather Palm Sunday was observed in the morning

Interest in Young Mule.

Myron Elliott is raising a young mule that has attracted many visitors

Patients Remembered. E. F. Rhodes, who is still at the Day-Kimball hospital, has been remembered by a shower of post cards the past week. The Congregational

Sunday school sent a gift of flower as a token of appreciation and sym pathy to their superintendent, R. A. Dunning, who is in serious condition

Mr. Larabee is clerk in Backus store, succeeding William Leak, who has begun work on the Ream estate.

POMFRET CENTER

Several from this vicinity attended the farmers' institute at North Wood-stock last week.

Miss Fanny Brown and Ralph Brown visited E. E. Brown over the week end.

E.E. Brown attended the institute at Plainfield Tuesday.

Philo Kingsbury was buried Wednesday. Rev. Mr. Burt preached the funeral sermon.

E. E. Brown attended the State Bee

keepers' convention at Hartford Fri day.

The Ladies' Aid society met Thurs day with Mrs. James Botham.

Mrs. Emma Weaver and Mrs. John latson spent 2 day in Worcester last

Miss Mildred Harries is spending the holidays at Westfield with her sister. Albert Rollinson visited his sister. Mrs. Emma Bennett, at Worcester one day last week. The mill stopped at 2.39 Thursday

. ATTAWAUGAN.

the Baptist church in the evening.

in the few weeks of its existence.

There was no meeting at

The snow storm of last Sunday was

Rev. Mr. Kellogg was summoned b

Supt. Walter Kingsley's Surpris Birthday Celebration and Gifts-

The annual business meeting of the Congregational church of Voluntown and Sterling was held in the Line meeting house Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Kellogg as pastor, presided, and invoked the divine blessing. Deacon J. C. Tanner was re-elected clerk. S. L. Barber was elected treasurer.

The report of Mrs. Kellogg, treasurer of benevolences, was heard and accepted and Miss Melinda Gallup was elected her successor for the ensuing year. The following were elected church committee: J. Cyrus Tanner, Mrs. George H. Gallup and Miss Melinda Gallup.

The resignation of the pastor, Rev. H. M. Kellogg, which was read from the pulpit several weeks ago, was accepted. The following were elected a committee of pulpit supply to act concerning candidates and obtain preachers after Mr, Kellogg's pastorate ends: Miss Melinda Gallup, Mrs. George H. Gallup, Mrs. George H. Gallup, Mrs. George H. Gallup, Mrs. Ezra A. Gallup.

Mrs. Ezra A. Gallup was appointed to take charge of the church valuables now in possession of the pastor, after he leaves.

Deacon J. Cyrus Tanner was re-elected deacon. Herbert Tarbox was Thursday evening the Sunday school and friends met in the church parlor and presented Walter Kingsley their thanks for his kind and loving interest in their welfare for nearly twenty years, while acting as their superintendent. Three little girls and three little boys marched by Mr. Kingsley and presented him a large bouquet of daffodils, after which Jason Lathrop pleasingly gave him a large oil painting of the church. It was a magnificent picture, executed by the pastor, Rev. F. S. Bamford, and sold by him to the Sunday school. After Mr. Lathrop, Rev. F. S. Bamford made a few remarks, followed by Mr. Kingsley, who heartily thanked the people. A short programme was then enjoyed, lew remarks, followed by Mr. Kingsey who heartily thanked the people. A short programme was then enjoyed, as follows:

Piano solo, Helen Galiup; vocal solo, Mildred Lathrop, Safe in the Harbor of Home, Sweet Home; violin solo, Francis Sullivan; vocal duet, Gladys and Tracy Wilbur; vocal duet, Gladys and Tracy Wilbur; vocal solo, Dorothy Tillinghast; reading, Elsie Briggs; vocal solo, Rev. F. S. Bamford, Silver Threads Among the Gold.

Two large cakes, one ornamented with the dates, 1852-1911, and W. K., the other lighted with 58 candles, gave a clue to why April 13 was selected as the time for such an ovation. Cake and cocoa were served, after which Mr. Kingsley rapped for silence, and congratulated the ladles on being able to keep a secret, as the whole thing was a genuine surprise.

Town Tepics.

Town Topics. Miss Annie L. Tillinghast started Friday morning for Washington, D. C. Frank Halyburton spent Sunday with his son, Harry, in Bridgeport. Miss Grace Dodge visited relatives in Providence Sunday.

At the meeting of the auxiliary missionary reading circle, held with Mrs. H. B. Lester, Rev. F. S. Bamford delivered a fine lecture on India. Its people portrayed as they really Its people portrayed as they really are and not as we are apt to think of them, was clearly and forcibly drawn to the attention of all present. The next meeting is to be held with Mrs. Robert Dawley.

Tuesday the schools in town observed Arbor day, planting catalpatrees given by Perteous & Mitchell Co. of Norwich.

SOUTH WINDHAM.

W. P. S. C. E. Held Temperance Meet ing-Notes and Personals.

The temperance meeting of the W. P. S. C. E. was led by William Curry of Goshen on Sunday evening. Two selections were well rendered by a choir of young girls from the society.

Miss Rene Murdock and Miss Nellie Dunleavy are enjoying a week's vacation, and will return to their school on Monday. Mrs. Hazel Backus and Miss Lenore Dunleavy are having two weeks vacation, before returning to their schools at Volun-Charles Palmer and Edith Beckwith

The local school has a week vaca-tion; the teacher, Miss Maud Chap-man, is at her father's in Norwich. Miss Gladys Gallup has been visit-Miss Gladys Gallup has been visit-ing in Brooklyn.

John Gallup of Danielson recently visited his father. Ezra Gallup.

Percy Merritt of Westerly has mov-ed his family and goods to the house of Benjamin F. Willcox and is to work his farm the coming season. were visitors in Norwich on Tuesday.

Mrs. Timothy Colbert has been confined to her house by illness.

Mrs. C. L. Clinton has been spending a few days with Prof. and Mrs.

Clinton of Storrs. Fire at Lynch Place.

A number of the men from the Smith, Winchester Manufacturing company were called to Windham with the chemical carriages to assist in subduing the fire at the Lynch place on Wednesday.

Mrs. C. W. Murdock and Miss Rene
Murdock were in Norwich on Wednes-

Harry Rude of Hartford was calling on friends here Tuesday.

The Ladies' Missionary society met with Mrs. Hulda Eaton on Thurs-Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gifford were recent visitors in Norwich.

Frank Woodard of Westerly has been calling on friends in town. A number from here attended funeral of Henry L. M. Ladd of London, who was buried from Willi-mantic on Wednesday. About 25 or 30 years ago, he taught the school in this town. The Fast day service was held this year on Friday evening.

The Y. P. S. C. E. are planning a poverty social to be held in the near future.

SOUTH WOODSTOCK

Supper Given by Ladies' Aid Society -Various Items.

The paster was at his former parish in Clinton several days last week, and was away over last Sunday, the Rev. F. H. Cooper of Andover occupying the pulpit acceptably.

On Sunday morning the pastor will preach an Easter sermon, and an Easter concert will be held by the Sunday school in the evening.

Miss Mildred Wells will not attend

Dean Academy this term, but has en-tered Woodstock Academy.

The Ladies' Aid society gave a clam chowder and bean supper at the ves-try on Thursday evening, the mid-week service being held on Friday Harry E. Wells was in Providence on Saturday last.

Miss Blanche L. Shippee returned this week to resume her teaching at Stafford. Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. Wells and Judson Sanger went to Providence last week to attend the funeral of Mrs. Louise Swan. She died last Thursday after 2 brief illness,.

WINDHAM

C. Arthur Keeney was the guest of Mr, and Mrs. A. E. Harvey of Wood-stock over Sunday. Nelson Weymouth of New London has been spending a few days with Miss Sarah Johnson.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society met in the chapel Thursday afternoon to study the fourth chapter of Western Women in Eastern Lands.

The services at the Congregational of Western Women in Eastern Lauds. The services at the Congregational church on Easter Sunday will include the regular service at 10.45, with sermon by the pastor and an Easter anthem, Why Seek Ye the Living Among the Dead, by the choir. There will be a children's service with short talk by the pastor at 11.45. In the evening there will be a praise service led by Mra, H. C. Grimes, the topic being The Spirit of the Resurrection.

WESTMINSTER

Miss Carrie Button, who has spent part of the winter with friends in Danielson, visited her parents Monday Miss Lila Ogden of Rockville re sumed her duties as teacher here Tuesday morning.

Mr. Dupree is erecting a cottage on the Hampton road, near Mr. Linnell's

Charles Dewing was in Danielson o

Charles Dewing was in Danielson on Tnesday.

Mrs. Charles Barstow has returned from a visit in Worcester.

Miss Katherine Pflulger of New York city is spending the Easter recess with Mr. and Mrs. C. Smith.

No services were held at the church Sunday on account of the storm.

Miss Carrie Button is spending a few weeks in Scotland with her sister.

Moses Linnell of Moosup spent, several days last week with his brother, Frank Linnell Germoon for the rest of the week.

Mrs. Mary Caffery and family have Frank Linnell

BROOKLYN

Birthday Pleasures for Miss Grace Copeland Prisoner at Jail Under-goes Operation for Appendicitis.

Miss Grace Thurber, after spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Thurber, has returned to her school in Lowell, Mass.

Albert S. Field and bride have returned from their wedding trip.

Warren A. Tanner has returned to school at Burlington, Vt.

Mrs. Wallace L. Pond of Providence was the guest on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. N. Wolcott Witter.

Miss Grace Copeland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Copeland, passed her 37th birthday April 5, and received a shower of cards, upwards of one hundred in all, a birthday cake, flowers and fruit. She is totally blind.

Snow Lessens Church Attendance,

Sunday morning many were surprised to find the ground white with snow, which proved to be not far from six inches deep. As a consequence attendance at the various churches was very small, the Unitarians not having any service. any service.

DeWitt C. Park was in Putnam on Tuesday to attend the funeral of his sister.

Alexander Esty has sold his place to a man from Greenfield, Mass., who is to take immediate possession. Mrs. R. P. Bennett and daughter have returned to their home in Provi-B. Hatch has had a large that stood near his residence taken down, as it had become decayed and Prisoner Has Appendicitis. A prisoner at the jail named Miller was operated upon Wednesday afternoon for appendicitis.

ABINGTON

Rev. Sherrod Soule of Hartford to Officiate at Easter Services-Notes.

Miss Lillian Peal of New York is A. N. Vaughn of Willimantic was in town Sunday.

Miss Virginia Sharpe of North Sterling is home for the spring vaca-Sterling is home for the spring vacation.

Mrs. A. J. McGorty, who has been spending several weeks in Providence, has returned to her home here.

Henry LeForte has moved into the Dennis house, recently purchased by Arthur Rich.

Rev. C. W. Burt and wife of Bolton, formerly of this place, visited with friends Wednesday.

Joseph Elliott is moving to the Osgood farm this week.

The funeral services of Philo Kingsbury were held at his late home on Wednesday at 1 o'clock, Rev. C. W. Burt of Bolton officiated.

The Ladies' Benevolent society met with Mrs. James Botham Thursday.

Rev. Sherrod Soule of Hartford will have charge of the Easter service at have charge of the Easter service the Congregational church.

WARRENVILLE

Mission Circle Pleasantly Entertain -Temperance Lecture.

Mrs. B. C. Bugbee is spending a fer days in Providence.

Miss Eva Spaulding is spending
Easter with her parents.

Ashford grange, No. 90, held its meeting in Baker's hall Wednesday evening.
The Mission circle was pleasantly entertained at the home of its president, Mrs. M. S. Louks, Wednesda dent. Mrs. M. S. Louks, Wednesday, afternoon.

First Selectman R. D. W. Knowlton, with a gang of men, has begun the spring work on the roads in town.

Mrs. Caroline Buell gave a temperance lecture under the auspices of the local W. C. T. U. on Monday evening at Baker's hall.

WESTFORD.

Industrious Needlewoman Completes Quilt of 2,520 Pieces.

Mrs. Agnes Irene from New York Mr. Thompson, who formerly lived on the Davis Baker place, near War-renville, has moved back there from Mansfield, where he has been living. Maro Lewis has finished the saw-ing on the Ernest Lawrence farm, re-cently bought by L. M. Rugell. cently bought by J. M. Burrill.

Jacob Hawkins has been repairing

Mrs. S. Hawkins has just completed quilt which contains 2,520 pieces.

RAWSON

The Week's Visitors-Sale of Farm.

Edwin Latham was an over Sunday visitor in Baltic. Everett Chase of Eagleville was caller in town Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Phillips spent Sunday in Elliott's.

Joseuh Birchnell has been enter-taining his brother from Jamaica, L.

W. W. Jewett was a Willimantic Mr. and Mrs. Frank Yeomans of Hartford are guests of Ella Latham. Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Fuller of Providence were over Sunday guests of My ron and Laura Fuller.

Farm Sold. John Daubeneck has sold his farm and is moving to New York. Harold Cunningham of Elliott's was a caller here Saturday.

WILSONVILLE

Mrs. Alvira Lemon of Putnam was a recent visitor with her sister, Mrs. Babbit. James Welch has been entertaining his mother from Chaseville the past Mrs. Samuel Adams visited relatives in Webster one day The drams, Valley Farm, which was presented here in the schoolhouse re-cently, was repeated at the Town hall in Thompson last Saturday night.

HOWARD VALLEY

Mr. and Mrs. I. F. Hawkes attended the funeral of the former's brother, M. S. Hawkes of Danielson, Monday, the 10th inst.

Mrs. Kivlin is moving to the Joe Wright farm in Canterbury.

A family of Italians from Brooklyn, N. Y., have moved to the Shanly farm.

Mrs. Thomas Smith and son Frank were in Danielson this week.

Mrs. George Brown and Mrs. Horace Main of Scotland visited Mrs. L. H. Hanks Tuesday.

ASHFORD

Mrs. William Holdredge and children of Mystic are visiting her parents here or a few days.

I. P. Richmond and family of Providence are at their summer home. William Bates has moved into James Seaton house. Samuel Bates attended the funeral of his brother, George Bates, in Scot-

WOODSTOCK VALLEY

George Arnold has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Arnold. Harold Bloom spent Sunday in South Coventry.
Miss Maria Hiscox is enjoying a trip Norfolk and Old Point Comfort,

Miss Edith Carpenter entertained

few friends at her home on Wednes-day afternoon and evening.

Messrs. Spencer and Hill of Putnam were in town Saturday.

Miss Alice Alderman returned from Worcester Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Allen Kenyon has been ill with srip.

Joseph L. Kenyon of Willimantic is at Allen Kenyon's, Stewart Sickles is ill.

SOUTH CANTERBURY

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hull of Lis Sunday.

Dr. Bradford of Brooklyn was in Sunday.

Dr. Bradford of Brooklyn was in this vicinity Tuesday.

Theodore W. Yerrington was in Norwich Thursday.

Miss Lizzie Whitford called on her sister, Mrs. C. O. Whitford, in Norwich, Thursday.

TOLLAND COUNTY

HEBRON

Death of Alice Griffin-Improvement in Dr. C. E. Pendleton's Condition-

Alice Griffin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Griffin, died Saturday and was buried Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Death was caused by Mr. and Mrs. Flavel Gillette and grandson were in town Wednesday.

Joseph Griffing moved into the Addison Frink house this week.

Joel P. Brown, who is at St. Josephs' hospital, is reported comfortable.

Miss Sarah T. Palmer, superinten-dent of schools, was in town last week

Dr. C. E. Pendleten Recovering. Dr. Cyrus E. Pendleton of New Haven, who has been very ill with pneumonia, is much better.

Mrs. Everett G. Lord is in New Haven for a few days at the home of Arbor Day Observance. Tuesday, April 11, Arbor day, the governor's proclamation was read in the schools. Each school planted its tree and each pupil was given a tree to take home and plant.

April 14, Good Friday, the schools in Labora ware closed. Hebron were closed.

The pupils in the prep. school are very busy after school hours rehears-

SOUTH COVENTRY

Easter Concerts Arranged-Henry F Dimock's Burial-State Road Work Begins.

There will be an Easter concert a the Methodist church Sunday morning at 11.45, the usual hour for service. At the Congregational church there will be a concert in the evening at seven encampment at Hartford this week.

Mrs. William C. Latimer entertained the Ladles' Missionary association at her home Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. F. E. Hull of Baltic and Miss
Ethel Hull of Norwalk are at Mrs. L. A. Mason's.

The W. C. T. U. met with Mrs. Ida
Smith Thursday afternoon.

Miss Moore of Scranton, Pa., is the guest of Miss Fanny White.

N. Searle Light of Suffield has been at the parsonage this week.

Burial of Henry F. Dimock. The body of Henry F. Dimock was brought here for burial in the family lot in Nathan Hale cametery Thursday

Work on State Road.

Work on State Hoad.

Work has been started on the continuation of the state road, beginning at DeWitt Kingsbury's store and extending through the village.

W. H. Armstrong was called to Buckhannon, W. Va., Tuesday by the serious illness at that place of his brother, Thomas D. Armstrong.

STORRS.

Rev. C. J. Regers of Buffalo, N. Y. Accepts Call to Second Congrega tional Church-Notes.

The college reopened last week aft er its spring recess. The new sched-ules have been made out and work is in full swing for the last term. Mrs. A. G. Gulley entertained the home on Wednesday afternoon. John Fitts and Mr. Walker spent Monday night in Ware, Mass., at the home of the latter's parents.

Mrs. Charles Thom and her little daughter, Beatrice went to Port Jefferson, L. I., on Friday for a two weeks' visit.

The visiting baseball team who defeated the local team on the home grounds on Tuesday afternoon, spent the night here and attended an informal dance held in College hall on Tuesday evening. New Pastor for Congregational Church.

Rev. L. J. Rogers of Buffalo, N. Y., has accepted the call of the Second Congregational church of Mansfield, situated in Storrs, and will begin his duties on the first of May. Book Club Meeting. The Book club held a pleasant meet ing at Grove cottage on Wednesday night. Light refreshments were serv-ed after a reading by Miss Mary Rog-ers from The Servant in the House. WILLINGTON

Bohemian Preacher at Congregationa Church-Personal Interests.

Miss Alice Preston went Saturday to New York for a few days. A few were kept away from the church services by the snow fall Sun-It was pelasant Sunday morning to hear the bell of the Congregational church ringing at the usual hour. Rev. Mr. Lawson and Rev. Mr. Bastel spoke interestingly, one in English, the other in Bohemian. There will be services next Sunday morning at the same hour and with the same able Friday evening at 7.30 at town hall a grange meeting was held.

Mrs. S. P. Morrison came Saturday for a visit with her friends and former neighbors.
'Mrs. Brown goes today (Saturday) Mrs. Brown goes today (Saturday) to Boston for a visit.
Mrs. Sleight as usual is passing the Easter season at Cozycroft.
Rev. E. W. Darrow preached Sunday from John 12:24.
Mr. Bastel preached to the Bohemian residents in Westford Sunday aft-

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Morse were summoned hastily to Stafford Sunday afternoon on account of the illness of the latter's father, Mr. McKinnie.

BOLTON

Teachers on Vacation Outing-Farm Manager Resigns.

A party of young lady teachers from South Manchester are spending their vacation at the Eldridge cettage. Mrs. C. W. Burt is visiting relatives

Mrs. C. W. Burt is visiting relatives in Waterbury.
Arthur M. Bidwell has moved his family to South Manchester.
Prof Samuel M. Alvord and family of Ashley street, Hartford, are spending two weeks' vacation with Mr. Alvord's sister, Miss Annie M. Alvord.
Aleck White has resigned as manager of Mrs. M. C. Sewey's farm and returned to his home in Hebron. William Dietz of Gilead has succeeded Mr. White.

SPRING HILL

Ladies' Aid Society Re-elects Officers
-Various Notes:

George Sparrow, who has engaged to work for B. M. Sears, has me ed from Windham to the house vacated by Jacob Bokleitch, he having taken possession of the place purchased by him at Hanks' Hill.

Fire which started from some unknown source on sprout land of Jeseph Schilling threatened serious damage on Wednesday, but was finally brought under centrol by those who responded to the call for help.

Meeting of Ladies' Aid Seciety.

At the annual meeting of the Ladies' Ald society on Wednesday afternoon, the following officers were receiected to serve for another year: President, Miss Ida E. Reynolds; vice president, Mrs. E. F. Storrs; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. W. A. Weld. In the evening a baked-bean supper was served, followed by a social hour. After the regular weekly prayer meeting on Thursday evening the Baptist Church society held its annual business meeting.

Mrs. Carrie E. Havens and Miss Amidown of Mansfield Center, who have lately returned from a trip to the Sandwich Islands and other points of interest, recently spent the day with Mrs. B. M. Sears.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll H. Hawkins spent a part of the week in Coventry, where Mr. Hawkins has been doing some work. Meeting of Ladies' Aid Society.

Rev. Leonard Smith and D. C. Fla herty attended a meeting of Uriel lodge, No. 24, F. and A. M., at Mer-row, last Saturday evening. The house of A. D. Palmer has been released from quarantine this week.

COLUMBIA

Belated Snowstorm-State Road Badly Cut Up.

People were surprised to find six inches of snow on the ground Sunday morning, and more falling. It commenced snowing about midnight and continued for nearly twelve hours. It was one of the heaviest falls of the season.

season.

Miss Sayles of East Killingly was the guest of her sister at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Kneeland over

Sunday.

Jewett S. Collins, is the employ of the Southern New England Telephone company, spent Sunday at the home of his father, Deacon William A. Collins.

Misses Ruby and Minnie Bigelow, teachers, spent their week's vacation with their mother, Mrs. Chester B. Lyman, at Mr. Lyman's home in this place.

Place.
The local A. O. U. W. held their meeting at Yeoman's hall on Monday Miss Kingsbury of Rockville, who formerly mught school in this place, has been visiting friends in town recently. To Reside in Columbia. D. A. Lyman, former editir of the Willimantie Journal, has moved to his place in Columbia, and will reside here dividing his time between Columbia and Willimantic, where he conducts business.

The roads are in bad chape in many places. The section of state road between this place and Williamantic is anything but smooth; cobble stones seem to be the predominating feature.

STAFFORDVILLE

Special Services During Hely Week-William Tobin Home from Wercester Hespital.

Special services are being held in the Congregational church this week. Rev. Robert Williams preached on Tuesday evening, Rev. A. Arnold Ross on Wednesday evening, Rev. R. G. Clapp on Thursday evening, Rev. Albert B. Todd on Good Friday evening. These meetings are interesting and inspiring.

Home from Hospital. William Tobin returned last week from St. Vincent's hospital in Werces-ter, where he had been for seventeen days, and underwent a successful op

General News. Mr. and Mrs. Allen S. West, Jr., have moved from Bennington, Vt., to Springfield, where Mrs. Lina Booth is spending a few weeks, as her grandson is ill with scarlet faver.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dorsey and family moved Monday from Hydeville into one of John Rockwell's tenements.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Rabideau and famlly moved to the H. Butterfield house last week.

Alvin Cavanaugh of Palmer, Mass., was the guest of local friends last week.

MASHAPAUG Cold Reception for Fishermen-Auger and Bit Shop on Sixty-Hour

A party of fishermen was in town looking for trout the first of the week, but as they did not think to bring their ice picks probably returned home with-out any, as April has struck in not as a lamb, but as something more fierce. School in District 4 was closed the first part of the week on account of the illuess of the teacher, Miss Amanda Thompson.

Dental trouble, aggravated by cold.

kept Bert Howlett confined to house last week. Auger Shop Running Sixty Hours Per For the past two months the auger and bit shop of the Snell Manufactur-ing company has been running 73 1-3 hours per week, but since April 1st it has run only 60 hours per week. Howard Lee of Stupbridge spent last Wednesday with Bert Howlett.

EAST WILLINGTON

Cordial Reception and Many Gifts for Mr. and Mrs. Grosvenor Davie. School closes this week for one week vacation.

Mrs. Fred Chase of Coventry is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Os-Mrs. Selma Royce is suffering with a

Mrs. James Taylor is much better.
Mr. and Mrs. Grosvenor Davis, on reaching home, were given a cordial reception. Many useful and ornamental presents were given, including gold and silver, glassware and linen, etc., one present coming from Washing-

TURNERVILLE.

Miss Helen Wightman of Stafford Miss Helen Wightman of Standard Hollow spent a few days at her uncle's, Albert Rathbone's.

A. E. Jaquith of South Coventry spent Sunday with his parents.

Mrs. D. F. Jaquith enterteined her sister, Mrs. Frank Belcher, and two children of Standardville the past Mrs. T. R. Prentice entertained the

BOLTON NOTCH

Mrs. Mary E. Brownell has gone to Mrs. Mary E. Brownell has some te Springfield to visit her sister. Mrs. Anne Gerry was a Reckville visitor last Thursday. Clarence Coon, who has been suf-fering from blood poisoning at St. Francis' hospital, is getting better. Mary Coon was in Hartford Tues-

Miss Annie Von Leck is leaving Mrs. Simw's, where she has been for six months.